Imagine waking up to a view of a Jack Nicklaus Signature golf course. After pouring yourself a cup of coffee in your gourmet kitchen, you take in the scenery of the Audubon sanctuary from your all-season sunroom. A short stroll leads you to a comfortable and elegant clubhouse, where you play a quick game of tennis (on one of four courts), take a dip in one of two pools, and shower in a locker room that wants for nothing. You ask the concierge to set you up with dinner reservations for that night at the best restaurant in town, and a babysitter for the kids.

And that's just the beginning of your extraordinary day. You're not on vacation -- this is your life at 40178 Monroe Valley Place in Creighton Farms.

Located in northern Virginia, Creighton Farms is just a stone's throw from the nation's capital, Reston Town Center, Tysons Corner, and half a dozen other bustling business and cultural centers -- and just 20 minutes from Dulles International Airport. Yet the quiet horse-country setting feels worlds away when it comes to quality and pace of life.

This private, gated community is home to luxury estates designed by award-winning custom builders, and the options for your dream home are endless.

The 4,600-square-foot home at 40178 Monroe Valley Place is French country style, with four full baths, two half baths and four bedrooms. It's located in the community's Nicklaus Village neighborhood and is walking distance from the clubhouse, pool and first tee of the golf course. While the location makes it desirable, it's what's inside the home that makes it extraordinary.

Each room in the home boasts custom trim. Take a look around and you'll see that the walls alone are works of art. And the beauty doesn't stop there -- the ceilings are double-coffered and are between 10-20 feet high. Wander through the kitchen and you'll not only see state-of-the-art appliances, but handcrafted cabinets designed and built by a cabinetmaker in Pennsylvania. With unique flooring throughout, every detail in the building of this home was scrutinized and executed with the highest standards to offer its residents a lifestyle that's simply unmatched.
